

What my Students' Families Expect from Me

- ❖ It can be expected that I will treat your child as I would treat my own.
- ❖ It can be expected that I will maintain a positive attitude and serve as a role model.
- ❖ It can be expected that I will maintain order in my classroom by using a fair, reasonable approach.
- ❖ It can be expected that I will keep up-to-date information regarding your child's progress.
- ❖ It can be expected that I will keep you updated on all other pertinent information through weekly newsletters, updates on my website, and daily comments in your child's planner.
- ❖ It can be expected that I will do my best to be available to conference with you about any questions, concerns, or celebrations that you may have.
- ❖ It can be expected that I will display current examples of student work which meet the standards so students will have a visible goal.
- ❖ It can be expected that I will strive to be present every day.
